

BAPTISTS RAISING ONE
MILLION FOR WAR WORK

Woman's Auxiliary Indorses a
Petition to Mayor to Name a
Time for Prayer for Soldiers.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Women's auxiliary of the First Baptist church Monday afternoon Mrs. E. B. Speer read a petition from the Highland Park Methodist church, south, asking that the mayor of the city name a special time for daily prayer for the allied soldiers and for peace. The auxiliary indorsed the petition, which will be presented to the mayor at the proper time.

The program was in charge of the Young Business Women's circle No. 15. Miss Susie McNulty presided and read the Scripture lesson.

Miss Emma Pickle told of what the circle had accomplished in patriotic work. One hundred and fifty hours' time had been given in the Red Cross work rooms and $100 had been subscribed during the last Red Cross drive.

"America" was sung, directed by Miss Ethel Tyler. In the last verse the words used by the Canadians when singing their national anthem were substituted. They were:

God save our splendid men,
Send them safe home again;
God save our men,
Make them victorious,
Patient and chivalrous—
They are so dear to us;
God save our men.

During the business session Mrs. W. F. Robinson, president of the Ocoee Missionary union, gave a report of the Southern Baptist convention and a visit to the Baptist training school at Louisville. She announced that all debts had been wiped out, and gave the appointments for the coming year. ## Odd Design for Braiding

(By Betty Brown)
Braiding is one of the new dress trimmings which remain in high favor for war-time wardrobes.

The reasons are plain. The souteche braid itself costs little and it can be applied to almost any material. The work is easily done by machine and the result is invariably artistic. Almost any energetic and economical woman can braid a dress herself.

An unusual but very effective application of braiding is shown in today's fashion art. The sleeve is braided from neck to wrist, giving a quaint foreign air to the frock.

FOUR ACCIDENTS
PILED IN HEAP

Barrel of Oil Spilled on Chestnut Street Injures Three Autos Skid.

An accident, which may yet prove to be a tragedy, happened Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock on Chestnut street near the corner of Seventh street. A barrel of oil dropped from a wagon of the Gulf Refining company and spilled over the street, making it very slippery. A man whose name is Johnson, riding a motorcycle, attempted to cross the spot, but the slippery pavement caused the motorcycle to whirl around, hurling him to the pavement. W. C. DeSha, who was standing near, and a negro, John Harris, an employee at the filling station on the corner, rushed to the aid of the fallen man, who was picked up unconscious. Just at this time a Southern Express truck happened to cross the fatal spot. It, too, skidded, knocking the two would-be rescuers unconscious also.

An ambulance was called and on arriving on the scene narrowly avoided running into the crowd, as the still slippery pavement would not allow the wheels to hold. In the meantime police patrol arrived on the scene. Not advised of the oil, the car came up in its usual hurry. Upon applying the brakes, the patrol commenced reversing its former position to this immediate peril of a little negro child, whose life was saved only by the quick action of an onlooker.

Johnson was not hurt seriously, but DeSha, who is an employee of the duPont company at Nashville, and Harris were both injured badly. Mr. DeSha is completely paralyzed from his waist up and one or two ribs are broken. The attending physician said that it was impossible at that time to tell the full extent of his injuries, but that he would be in bed several weeks at the least.
